

“Family Dinner” :60

In this spot, you hear a family dinner with the animals of Zoomars. Cheery holiday music plays until the end of the spot. The announcer at the end is voiced by a middle-aged person with a warm, inviting voice.

SFX: MUSIC STARTS. PRESENTS UNWRAPPING.

HORSE: Neigh Just the comb I wanted! Everyone’ll be so jealous of my silky mane.
Thanks Dad!

HORSE: Deeper neigh It’s a bigger present for me - now you’ll stop using mine.

SFX: EVERYONE LAUGHS.

SFX: CHEWING. SILVERWARE CLANKING.

GUINEA PIG: Squeak Aunt Llama, can you pass the carrots?

SHEEP: Bah Careful, she might spit in them.

SFX: EVERYONE LAUGHS.

HORSE: Neigh Emu, tell everyone what happened yesterday!

EMU: Oh yeah, this little boy complained to his mom ’cause he thought I’d be a cow!

COW: Moo You wish!

SFX: EVERYONE LAUGHS.

GOAT: Bleat Uncle Alpaca – do you want some more grass?

ALPACA: Hum No, I've lost my appetite thinking about the outrageous inadequacy of our zoo policy makers.

SFX: MUSIC STOPS. EVERYONE SITS IN AWKWARD SILENCE. A FEW COUGHS.

ANCR: At Zoomars, we're just like your average family. Visit us in San Juan Capistrano for a day of old-fashioned fun – but maybe don't bring that uncle.